MAY BREAKFAST

Khristen and Jacob King will cook breakfast this month to benefit the Stork Family. Their home was destroyed in a fire on the same day the mother was giving birth to the newest family member. All proceeds will help them get clothes and furniture for starting over. You may want to visit with Khristen to see if they could use other types of donations. Your generosity is appreciated!

A MESSAGE FROM THE SENIOR WARDEN

"Alleluia. Christ is risen."

"The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!"

These words have a special meaning for all of us, as we know about how God redeemed the world through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. The words, music and images of the holy season all help us realize the power of what God has done for us. It is a truly wonderful time of year, with the best (in my opinion) being the look of surprise and joy on the faces of children as they hunt for eggs. All of us need to experience that sense of surprise in our lives. May we be kept in joy and surprise this Easter season with a deeper appreciation for the wonders of God's grace given to us, so we can find new opportunities, new ways to love and serve others in the name of Jesus Christ.

—David Scott

Kathy Watkins took the St. James Luncheon leftovers to Common Ground Ministry in Cedar Grove.

John Calvin Presbyterian assisted Saint Stephen.

This is the first year that I have attended all five of the Ecumenical Services/Lunches. I would most definitely do it again. ~Kathy Deal
